Arbor Day Celebration

As Pioneers settled in the Nebraska territory they sorely felt the need for trees as wind breaks, shade, and soil erosion prevention. The first Arbor Day was proposed by tree enthusiast J. Sterling Morton, and celebrated in Nebraska on April 10th 1872. Over 1 million trees were planted on the first Arbor Day. The Olathe Parks Department will celebrate Arbor Day Monday, April 22nd at 9AM at Community Park.
